1. Review and discuss proposed FY 1995-96 City of Lawton Budget.

Schumpert provided a summary of mandated reductions in the departments and reviewed the information.

The City Council reviewed and discussed the department budget reductions.

Council moved to have a position for Assistant City Manager to get as many grants as he can, to run the internship program and the complaints from the Council and the City with the proviso that everyone understands that if this doesn't work out, the position wouldn't be supported in the next fiscal year budget.

Council moved to accept the budget as presented by staff.

A list of suggested changes to the CDBG project listing was distributed and will be brought as an agenda item.

ADJOURNED AT 7:20 p.m.
